

Write the word in toto three times. That means the whole thing, all principle parts, & all translations. I have provided an extra line for the longer definitions.

1. argenteus, argentea, argenteum – silver, made of silver

---

---

2. brevis, breve – short, brief

---

---

3. deinde – then

---

---

4. deligo, deligere, delegi, delectum – choose

---

---

5. dens, dentis, m – tooth

---

---

6. dives, gen. divitis – rich, wealthy

---

---

7. igitur – therefore

---

---

8. pars, partis, f – part

---

---

9. pretiosus, pretiosa, pretiosum – expensive, costly, precious

---

---

10. proximus, proxima, proximum – nearest, most recent

---

---

---

---

11. participle – verb acting as an adjective

---

---

---

12. present participle – participle done at the same time as the main verb

---

---

---

13. active participle – done by the word being described

---

---

---

14. perfect participle – participle done before the main verb

---

---

---

15. passive participle – participle done by someone other than the word being described

---

---

---

16. vocative – calling by name when speaking to

---

---

---

17. imperative – command

---

---

---

18. infinitive – verb without an ending, used to form positive and negative imperatives

---

---

---

---

---

---