

A. Identify the vocative in the English sentences. Look for clues like commas and exclamations. (/10)

1. And, Hoggle, if she ever kisses you, I'll turn you into a prince.
2. Knock it off, Napoleon! Just make yourself a dang quesadilla!
3. Put a sock in it, Legolas.
4. Sorry, Baby, no one rules the Tom-monster.
5. Good throw, son. That's my boy! Go long, Buzzy!
6. Quiet, Bo Peep, or your sheep will get it.
7. Mike, my apathy is palpable by this point.
8. You, Flowerchild, let's go.
9. The only thing that scares me, Mr. O'Connell, are your manners.
10. I'll get you for this, He-Man!

B. Identify if the noun/name should change to create vocative. If it does, provide the vocative. (/10)

Name/noun	Change?	If yes, what is it?
1. Augustus
2. Caecilius
3. Clodius
4. dominus
5. Drusilla
6. Drusus
7. Livia
8. muria
9. Vergilius
10.Vipsania

Identify if the imperative is positive or negative, singular or plural. (/20)

Sentence	Positive + or negative –	Singular or plural
1. Students, take out your dictionaries.
2. Martin, don't lick the penguin.
3. Wilbur, stop punching Cornelius.
4. Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears.
5. Children, line up quietly.
6. Drivers, don't run red lights.
7. Jason, sow the teeth of the dragon.
8. Sailors, go on board the ship.
9. Medea, don't kill your brother.
10. Kids, don't forget to write your name.

Create the requested number and tone of the imperative and translate. (/24)

Verb	Kind	Imperative	Translation
specto, spectare, spectavi, spectatum	negative pl	1. nolite spectare	2.
rideo, ridere, risi, risum	negative sg	3.	4.
iuvo, iuvare, iuvavi, iuvatum	positive sg	5.	6.
oro, orare, oravi, oratum	positive pl	7.	8.
discedo, discedere, discessi, discessum	negative sg	9.	10.
venio, venire, veni, ventum	positive pl	11.	12.
eo, ire, ii, itum	positive sg	13.	14.
vito, vitare, vitavi, vitatum	negative sg	15.	16.
vivo, vivere, vixi, victum	positive pl	17.	18.
capio, capere, cepi, captum	negative pl	19.	20.
tango, tangere, tetigi, tactum	positive pl	21.	22.
pono, ponere, posui, positum	negative sg	23.	24.