

olim amicus meus ex urbe discedebat. nox erat, sed luna plena lucebat. amicus per viam festinabat, ubi silva erat. subito centurionem conspexit. amicus meus centurionem salutavit. centurio tamen nihil dixit. tum centurio tunicam deposuit. ecce! centurio evanuit. ingens lupo subito apparuit. amicus meus valde timebat. ingens lupo ululavit et ad silvam festinavit. tunica in via iacebat. amicus tunicam caute inspexit. ecce! tunica erat lapidea. tum amicus rem intellexit. ille centurio erat versipellis.

Vocabulary

appareo, apparere, apparui – appear caute –cautiously depono, deponere, deposui – put down, take off dico, dicere, dixi – say evaneo, evanere, evanui – vanish iaceo, iacere, iacui – lie, lie down ille, illa, illum – that inspicio, inspicere, inspexi – look at, examine lapideus, lapidea, lapideum – made of stone luceo, lucere, luxi – shine, be bright luna, lunae, f – moon
lupus, lupi, m – wolf mirabilis, mirabile – strange, wonderful nox, noctis, f – night plenus, plena, plenum – full rem intellego, rem intellegere, rem intellexi – understand the truth tamen – however ululo, ululare, ululavi – howl versipellis, versipellis, m – werewolf

Nomen _____ Score /10

1. Where was the friend leaving from?
2. What time of day is it?
3. Describe the moon during this story.
4. Whom did the friend meet while he was walking through the forest?
5. The friend greeted this person. How did this person respond?
6. What weird action did the person do?
7. What happened immediately after he took off his tunic?
8. What did the wolf do?
9. What was the tunic made of?
10. What was the centurion really?